

A Message from the CEO

Dear Friends,

I am writing to let you know that we have made the difficult decision to close the Osher Marin JCC for at least two weeks beginning at the end of today.

This closure applies to all of our programs and services.

At this time, no one within our J community has tested positive for Coronavirus. Nevertheless, we are following guidance from our Marin County health officials who say the best way to keep everyone safe is the practice of social distancing. We want to be a part of the solution and not part of the problem.

The J has always been a place where people gather, connect with one another, and strengthen their bodies, minds, and souls. This continues to be our mission. So, in the coming days, we will introduce new and creative ways to remain connected with you and our broader community. Stay tuned. We will communicate with you as we determine our next steps, and we greatly appreciate your patience during this unprecedented situation.

Our tradition has an ancient teaching that states: "We are all responsible for and to one another." Thank you for your support, understanding, and for taking care of each other during this challenging time.

To a Restful Shabbat,

Judy Wolff-Bolton, CEO
