What it IS...

Passover is an 8-day festival that commemorates the ancient Israelites' Exodus from Egypt and celebrates freedom and redemption.

What to EAT...

Matzah (unleavened bread). Fruits, vegetables, eggs, dairy, meats, fish and packaged products with a Kosher for Passover stamp.

What to SAY...

Chag Sameach!
HAPPY HOLIDAY!

Next year in Jerusalem
(said at end of the Seder)

Chametz, food products made from wheat, barley, rye, oats, or spelt, which has leavened (risen).

What not to EAT...

Ashkenazi Jews don't eat corn, beans, and rice.
Sephardic Jews do.

What to DO...

Right before Passover, remove all traces of leavened bread from the home & replace with matzah & Passover foods.

Attend a Seder (ritual meal) on the first two nights of Passover. And hear the story of the Israelites' liberation from slavery.

Four cups of wine are drunk during the Seder. A fifth cup is set for Elijah the prophet.

ON THE Seder Plate

Karpas, parsley, represents spring.

Baytza, an egg, represents fertility & spring.

Maror, horseradish, symbolizes the bitterness of slavery.

Z'roa, a roasted shank bone, symbolizes the sacrifice.

Charoset, a mixture of dried fruits & nuts, represents the mortar the Hebrew slaves placed between the bricks.

The Haggadah, outlines the 15 steps in the seder & tells the story of Passover.

Matzah, unleavened bread, symbolizes what the Israelites took when they fled Egypt.
