

OSHER MARIN JCC IMPACT REPORT 2024

Meet a few of the people
whose lives are enriched
at the Osher Marin JCC.

Sustaining Jewish Culture • Enriching Lives • Building Community

The mission of the Osher Marin JCC is to celebrate, strengthen and sustain Jewish life, to build cross-cultural understanding, and to enrich the lives of those in the community at large.

We are the gateway for people of all ages, faiths, and backgrounds to participate in cultural experiences, community events, education and recreational activities.

Dear Friends,

This past year marked the 75th anniversary of our JCC's founding. We have grown from a small outpost in 1948 to the cultural heart of Marin Jewish life. As we mark the end of an extremely daunting year for Jews worldwide, never has our critical role been more evident.

People of all backgrounds and faiths come to our JCC to create connections that weave us together and form our communal fabric. Over 2,000 visitors come through our physical and virtual doors each day for a breadth of innovative programs and learning opportunities, to create friendships, and to live a healthy and meaningful life.

We are keenly focused on expanding and evolving to fulfill our mission of sustaining Jewish culture, enriching lives, and building an inclusive and welcoming center. Having a strong and proud Jewish community that will endure for generations is at the heart of our JCC. Over the last twelve months, with the devastating events in Israel, Gaza and the Middle East, and the rise of antisemitism locally and across the globe, our JCC has demonstrated that we are a place where Jews and our neighbors gather to express solidarity and find support and comfort in being together.

We are amazed and humbled by our JCC's growth over the past 75 years. And we are excited to start the good, hard work to help it flourish over the next 75 years.

Thank you for your continued support.

Sustaining Jewish Culture

Meet Vivian

Four generations of Vivian Cohen's family have enaged in Jewish culture and built community at the JCC. Her parents Anette and Herbert Heller, of blessed memory, joined the JCC in 1961 to enroll Vivian and her twin sister in our nursery school. When Vivian and her husband Emil Areton became parents, they sent their four children to the same preschool. Next year, her eldest granddaughter will attend and create her own friendships and memories at the JCC.

"I've been a member my whole life, and I see the future generation, my grandchildren, continuing. So it's going to be generation to generation to generation."

Sixty years after first joining, Vivian still visits the JCC several times a week – to work out at the fitness center, attend a Jewish peoplehood program, or participate on the JCC board. Vivian describes her experience at the JCC affectionately. "I can't get enough of this place. I just love walking through the door every day. You just feel a sense of belonging and love and kindness here. Every day is a new memory."

565

People of all ages came through our doors at our new branch, JCC South, in Mill Valley.

1,500

Joined our dozen Inside Israel Live briefings virtually and in person with Middle East political analyst Avi Melamed.

1,000

Community members participated in Jewish holiday programs, popups, Shabbat Schmoozes, and cultural events.

1,400

People joined together in person and on livestream for a meaningful, sorrowful, and beautiful October 7th commemoration.

Enriching Lives

Meet Tom

Legendary football coach at Marin Catholic High School, Tom Shershanovich, has been a devoted member of the Osher Marin JCC for 32 years. He can see the JCC from his hilltop home in San Rafael. As a football coach who trained athletes, Tom praises the JCC's equipment and facilities: "There's no other place that I know of around here that could compare the JCC."

Tom suffered from severe degenerative arthritis, partly due to his profession, and only after multiple knee surgeries was he ready to return to the JCC. Three times a week Tom benefits from personal training, working on weights, riding a stationary cycle, and swimming lengths. "I had a tough time standing", says Tom, "the JCC brought me back to life. It saved my life."

Tom also enjoys the fact that the JCC is a warm, welcoming, inclusive community, open to all. "I look forward to getting up and coming to the JCC. Mainly I look forward to seeing my friends and the people who work here. I love these people, they are always happy."

Participants per week stayed active by taking our long-standing senior strength classes.

1,450

People gained strength and mobility last year from our hydrotherapy, arthritis and Parkinson's classes.

$350K

In financial aid was provided to families, children and seniors in our programs and services.

19,750

Swim lessons were provided last year for all ages and abilities as part of our goal to improve water safety in Marin.

Building Community

Meet the Ladies

The Osher Marin JCC is a place where friendships are formed, and it's clear when talking with this enthusiastic group of ladies who regularly met at the JCafé. Though they met through exercise classes, they all agree that it is the friends they've made that keeps them coming back year after year. "It is a testimony to the friendships that we have developed here that during the COVID pandemic we had Zoom meetings of our group, every Friday," shared Barbara Cate.

Each one cites compelling reasons for coming to the JCC. Carol Sachal summed up what others were saying, "Water aerobics are absolutely magic. It's what I love...And I love all the people in my classes." They highlight the wonderful instructors, the diversity, and the beautiful facility. While applauding the therapeutic benefits of group exercise, especially in the pools, they emphasize the importance of experiencing all these programs with friends in community. For many, the J has been part of their entire lives, part of their families' lives, and has become their second home.

People enjoyed our multicultural Summer Nights concert series.

1,200

Adult learners participated in JCC classes, cultural events, and trips around the world.

360

School-aged youth came to Camp Kehillah last summer creating lifelong friendships.

Ensuring our Future

Meet Evi

Evi Rachelson estimates that she's taught 1,750 students in her 38 years at the JCC Preschool, and she takes pride in helping so many start their Jewish journeys. "I like to teach my students not only the joy of learning, but also the Jewish joy of learning," says Evi. "I try to instill Judaism in a fun way, so that it goes into their body and hearts, and hopefully they will pass their love on to the next generation."

In fact, many of Evi's former students grow up to send their children to the JCC Preschool, like Justin Patrizio and his son, Roman. "I have many fond, formative memories from my time at the JCC," recalls Justin. "We chose the JCC for Roman's preschool because of the teachers like Evi, who provide such a great foundation for our kids."

"I'm delighted that I'm teaching the next generation," says Evi, "and who knows, maybe I'll end up teaching the grandchildren of some of my students. The JCC is an amazing place and I love what I do."

12,600

Visitors come through our physical and virtual doors each week to join a program, engage in learning, or meet friends.

405

Individual donors and foundations provided charitable support to our JCC last year.

900

Programs for Everyone

Toddlers & Preschoolers

Our Early Childhood Education Centers in San Rafael and Mill Valley offer a variety of infant and baby programs and provide toddler, preschool, and pre-K (transitional kindergarten) programs for children ages 18 months to five years, with a focus on universal, values-based learning.

Youth & Family

The Toole Center for Youth & Family offers year-round programs for children, teens, and families. In addition to hosting special events for Jewish holidays, it is also home to Camp Kehillah, a popular summer and vacation camp serving youth across the community.

Adults

The Kurland Center for Adult Learning & Living provides lifelong learners with a range of enriching experiences, from classes and local excursions to musical matinees and international trips. We also offer exercise programs for seniors and Israeli folk dance sessions.

Performing Arts

The Kanbar Center for Performing Arts showcases world-class performances, including the popular outdoor Summer Nights and indoor Winter Nights concert series, which often attract over a thousand attendees from across the community.

Jewish Culture

The Taube Center for Jewish Peoplehood offers programs, thought-provoking discussions, and holiday celebrations that honor Jewish values and traditions. Our events welcome people of all ages, beliefs, and interests.

Fitness & Aquatics

Our award-winning Koret Center for Health & Fitness features an Aquatics Center with both indoor and outdoor pools, a full gymnasium, personal trainers, a sauna, a spa, and over 50 weekly fitness classes, including Pilates, Yoga, Indoor Cycling, and TRX.

Our impact is possible because of you.

Your gift enables us to

- Strengthen connection with friends and community.
- Celebrate Jewish joy, tradition and culture.
- Help older adults stay active and engaged.
- Foster Jewish identity through preschool, youth, and family programs.
- Create an inclusive, welcoming and safe gathering space in both good and challenging times.
- Provide financial assistance and free or low-cost programs so that everyone can participate.

Your contribution, no matter the size, enables us to fulfill our unique role of reaching across age groups, improving wellbeing, inspiring Jewish journeys, and building a world based on greater cross-cultural understanding.

Did you know that Membership dues and other revenues cover just 80% of our annual costs? Philanthropic support is critical to keeping our JCC vibrant and thriving.

Your gift has impact.

Why We Give

We support the JCC because it is a place for people to gather and grow, to make new friendships, to enjoy the arts, and to just hang out. We want the JCC to continue to be a home for all Jews, young and old, while also serving the entire community and being a place where people of all faiths can feel comfortable and work together to better our society.

— Leslie and Steve Isaacs,
Members & Legacy Circle
Donors

We support the JCC, because we have been so inspired by the JCC's work to empower individuals in all stages of life to maintain mental and physical wellness and by the tremendous impact that the J has had on our lives.

— Ilona and Lorne Parker,
Members & Leadership
Circle Donors

I support the JCC, because although I grew up Buddhist the JCC is a spiritual place where I see friends, engage in conversation, and deepen my understanding of Judaism.

It is hard to imagine my life without the JCC and the many friends I have made over the years.

— Mark Noguchi,
Member & Donor

I donated to the JCC for the first time because I want to help foster a strong community here in Marin, particularly a strong Jewish community. My daughter deepened her Jewish identity at Camp Kehillah, and the friendships and community that she built at the JCC will last a lifetime.

— Marc Rochman,
Camp Parent & New Donor
